

Madison Scottish Country Dancers are thrilled to welcome A Parcel of Rogues (Calum Pasqua, fiddle, and Susie Petrov, piano) back to the shores of Loch Mendota. Join us at the UW Memorial Union's newly renovated Great Hall for our 41st annual ball!

The weekend schedule includes:

- A Friday evening concert showcasing the best in Scottish music, old and new
- A Saturday morning dance workshop with Susie, focusing on form and technique
- A reception, dinner and ball in the resplendent grandeur of Great Hall
- Our not-to-be-missed after-ball party and Sunday brunch, in true Madison tradition!

For those who have not yet experienced the joy of listening and dancing to Calum and Susie's music, you are in for a treat!

In 2007 Calum won the Glenfiddich Scottish Fiddle Competition at Blair Castle in Scotland, where he was the first American ever invited to compete. He is also a US Scottish Fiddle Champion.

Susie, who plays piano and accordion, is an accomplished RSCDS teacher who has taught Scottish music and dance across the US and in Canada, Scotland, Netherlands, Germany, France and Italy.

Susie and Calum have some 50+ years of Scottish Country Dancing experience between them and have performed for concerts, balls, summer camps and in biker bars in Queens.

As an added bonus, our weekend coincides with the Madison Celtic Festival. Weekend attendees may take advantage of Festival events during breaks in our schedule.

Weekend Overview

The weekend festivities begin with a Friday evening concert with Susie and Calum, featuring the best in Scottish music, old and new. To continue the revelry, stop by the UW Memorial Union after the concert and enjoy some Irish tunes by local bands.

Saturday's events include a morning dance workshop with Susie, two afternoon walkthroughs geared for beginning and advanced dancers, an evening social hour, dinner and ball, and after-ball party at a member's home. Celtic Festival events, also conveniently located at the UW Memorial Union, include an Irish dance demonstration at noon and concert by the Irish music group Lunasa at 4 pm. In keeping with tradition, our weekend will conclude with a Sunday brunch at a member's home.

Note: Tickets for Madison Celtic Festival events must be purchased separately; visit their website for further details.
